To Whom It May Concern:

The Housing Authority of the County of Butler contracted with Uhl Construction Company to renovate forty-six housing units at Franklin Court Apartments located in Butler, PA. We are extremely satisfied with the result of this contract and Uhl's performance for the following reasons.

Time Frame: The project was completed within our time frame.

Cost: All activities were completed within the project scope and all change orders were truly comprised of added features or options.

Performance: All of Uhl's personnel involved with this project were competent, professional, organized and dedicated to the overall success of the renovation project.

Communication: Uhl's project superintendent for the project was in contact with our project manager at all times and bi-weekly job meetings were held between Uhl and the Housing Authority of the County of Butler.

The Housing Authority of the County of Butler is pleased to provide a letter of recommendation for Uhl Construction Company.

Sincerely,

HOUSING AUTHORITY OF
THE COUNTY OF BUTLER
